Teachers address 'inaccuracies'

To the editor:

Recently there has been a lot of discourse in the community about the Kiel Area School District and the upcoming School Board election.

There are some accusations and inaccuracies that we, the undersigned staff members of KASD, would like to address.

First, Critical Race Theory is an academic legal theory taught in higher education. We discuss diversity, bo

Fourth, we do not use pornographic materials in our classrooms. This is ludicrous and insulting.

Last, it has always been the goal of this School District and board to improve student performance.

It is our life's work to do so, and the current board has always supported student-centered initiatives. Schools succeed when educators, parents and communities work together. Divisive rhetoric at any unity

"Since Tri-County Citizens (TCC) began their interest in Kiel's schools: False claims of so-called CRT and pornography riddling the district.
